THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU to the supporters of Lancaster Dollars for Higher Learning! I am so grateful a family friend told me about Lancaster Dollars for Higher Learning and their amazing interest-free loans as I was applying for colleges! As a first-generation college student, the process of applying for scholarships, grants and student loans was a little overwhelming. LDHL's interest-free loans were a huge help in reducing my interest-bearing student loans and making college more affordable. I received two interest-free loans from LDHL during my time at Lebanon Valley College, and I could not be more grateful. Because of these loans, not only did I receive my undergraduate degree in Accounting, I can truly say that attending college helped me become the person I am today. The organizations I was involved in and the opportunities I received, including studying abroad in Spain, have all changed me for the better and had a huge impact on me!

Since my time at Lebanon Valley College, I have earned my Master of Accounting and Financial Management with a certified fraud examiner concentration from Keller Graduate School of Management and, just a few days ago, I found out I passed my final section of the CPA exam! I'm very proud of my educational accomplishments and I wouldn't be here without the help from Lancaster Dollars for Higher Learning. I currently live in Tucson, Arizona and work in the accounting department for Bourn Companies, a Tucson based company that focuses on Tucson community-oriented development and property management projects.

I am grateful to be able to give back to Lancaster Dollars for Higher Learning, especially during the Extraordinary Give, and plan to continue to give back. I know first hand the impact this organization has on each individual student loan recipient and I want to pass that on to future generations of students- a message that you CAN go to college, if you have the desire and drive, and there ARE people out there to help you on your way!

Thank you!

Emily (Johns) Rubin

PS don't forget the next Extraordinary Give- it's November 16! It's a great opportunity to contribute to this great cause, and have your donation go even further with the stretch pool opportunities available with this event!

Board Letter

Dear Friends,

Thank you for making the 2017-2018 school year yet another remarkable year for Lancaster Dollars for Higher Learning! We marked fifty-seven years of supporting students from Lancaster County in pursuit of their post-secondary education goals.

With your support, LDHL was able to provide more than $1 million dollars in interest-free loans this year! But this isn't the only accomplishment worth celebrating.

In addition, we are also focused on keeping the organization fiscally responsible. With the help of our excellent staff, we are able to accomplish this, while continuing to spread the word about benefits of LDHL within our community.

Over the last year, LDHL was the grateful recipient of a $15,000 grant from the Lancaster County Community Foundation to update our loan management software. In addition, we've focused on sharing our loan recipients' stories and information about LDHL through social media. If you haven't started to follow LDHL, stay up to date with us on Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn and Instagram. Our staff has also expanded outreach programs throughout the county including 21 college and financial aid events.

Nearly 600 students are currently repaying their loans and we continue to keep a very low default rate of about 4% percent, by making loan re-payments affordable.

In the year ahead, we look forward to continuing to develop our interest-free loan program opportunities for students in Lancaster County.

Thank you wholeheartedly for your generous support of LDHL. We look forward to the year ahead!

Sincerely,
The Board of Directors
Lancaster Dollars for Higher Learning

Lancaster Dollars welcomes new Board Members and says goodbye to long serving Members.

Samantha Eck

Samantha Eck, communications and marketing professional, joined the Lancaster Dollars for Higher Learning Board of Directors in March 2018. Eck is a 2010 Mansfield University of Pennsylvania graduate and has education, not-for-profit, agency, and health care communication experience.

Jonas Kennedy began working at Franklin & Marshall College in 2008 in Information Technology Services. He joined the Office of Admission in 2009 as the Director of Enrollment Information Systems, working closely with the Operations and Marketing teams. In 2015, Jonas transitioned back to ITS as Director of Enterprise Systems & Web Services. Prior to joining F&M Jonas taught as an adjunct instructor at Binghamton University and worked as Web Administrator for a marketing company. Jonas received a B.S. in Cinema & Photography from Ithaca College and a Master's degree in Instructional Technology from University of South Florida.

Jonas Kennedy

We want to thank Alan Sutter for his time and commitment as Board Member. Alan has served for 6 years and has provided the IT support for the organization during that time. We are grateful for his service over the years. His guidance and input will be missed.

We are excited to announce that we are expanding our services. Watch for an upcoming message about a new interest-free loan program at LDHL! The new program will be an additional way to help meet the needs of the Lancaster Community.

The Extraordinary Give is November 16!

Your support makes a difference in the lives of students like Alyse. "Lancaster County is my home, and this loan demonstrates the sense of community that I love about this area. By donating to LDHL, you are aiding students in attaining a higher education and that money is recycled back to upcoming college students. Your donation enables not just the college students of today, but the college students of tomorrow. In addition, donating to this cause sets a good example to local students and encourages them to support their community in the future," Alyse shared.

Grant Awarded for New Software Program

Lancaster Dollars for Higher Learning was the recipient of a capacity building grant provided by the Community Foundation. This money will be used to implement Intacct Software. The software will replace QuickBooks and Access. The new system will allow for better reporting and remove the task of double entry. Intacct can grow with the organization as our needs change. We have selected Cargas, a local premier Intacct partner, to oversee the implementation, training and transition. The staff is very excited to move to the new system. Implementation should be completed by the end of the year.

Planned Giving – Is it for Me?

By Brenton Hake, Charities and Endowment Group
Fulton Financial Advisors

The problem – You want to assure that your favorite charity, Lancaster Dollars for Higher Learning for example, receives a gift in the future, but you are not ready (or you think you are not ready) to give up the current benefit of the gift. The solution might be to consider planned giving.

Planned gifts are gifts to charity in which the donor plans ahead, thereby taking full advantage of the opportunities afforded by the tax code. Working with your advisors and the charity you wish to benefit is important to ensure that your intent and goals are met in the most effective and beneficial manner for both you and the charity.

Consider some of these planned giving techniques:

Bequests through your Will

Gifts of long term appreciated publicly traded stock during your lifetime

Gifting of ownership of paid-up life insurance policies to the charity

Naming the charity as beneficiary of an insurance policy

Naming the charity as beneficiary (or one of the beneficiaries) of retirement funds such as an IRA or 401(k)

Each technique offers benefits to meet your specific goals such as lifetime income, immediate tax deduction, deferral or avoidance of capital gains tax, asset diversification and most importantly benefit to the charity.

If you are seeking a solution to your charitable gifting problem and want to benefit Lancaster Dollars for Higher Learning, why not speak to your advisors and Christie Livengood at Lancaster Dollars for Higher Learning to determine if a planned gift is the solution.

Scholars Awarded Legacy Loans

Lancaster Dollars for Higher Learning is thrilled to recognize the recipients of the legacy loans for the 2018-2019 academic year. These Lancaster County students' academic and extra-curricular contributions paved the way for this special recognition. These awards serve as recognition of both the generosity of our donors and their commitment to aiding Lancaster County students in their post-secondary educational pursuits.

Serina Blessing

Serina Blessing, a Conestoga Valley High School graduate, is the recipient of the William and Violet Dussinger Legacy Loan.

An active member of the National Art Honor Society and soccer team in high school, Serina will pursue a biology degree at Penn State University and hopes to become a doctor.

Daryn Ebersol

Another Cocalico High School graduate, Daryn Ebersol has received the Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Weaver Legacy Loan. A first-generation college student, Daryn plans to pursue actuarial science at Lebanon Valley College. In high school he was a member of the National Honor Society and the LEO Club; he also helped to coach youth sports clinics at the YMCA.

The David and Tamela Fasnacht Legacy Loan is given to Donegal High School graduate Andrew Erb. This 2018 class president, as well as president of Donegal's chapter of Future Business Leaders of America, was also on the football and baseball teams. Andrew finds his volunteer work with fifth grade students at Camp Yoliwja most rewarding, and he plans to pursue a finance degree at Penn State University.

Andrew Erb

Ryan Floyd's strong work ethic and will to succeed will drive his pursuit of film studies at the University of Pittsburgh. This Lampeter-Strasburg High School graduate was very involved in theater while there. Ryan is the recipient of the Ronald and Patricia Tweed Legacy Loan.

Donegal High School graduate Kayla Forrey was awarded the Margaret Gordon Lestz Legacy Loan. This high school class president, National Honor and Art Societies member, and Student Council member is studying medical humanities at Boston University, hoping to become an art therapist to make a difference in the lives of children and adults who are battling mental illness. Kayla plays club field hockey at college and participates in 4Boston, a program that allows students to serve the greater Boston area. Her 4Boston service includes tutoring elementary school children, coaching field hockey and lacrosse at a private school, and working out with veterans.

Kayla Forrey

Austin Michael Frey

The Dr. Mary Elizabeth Dixon Legacy Loan recipient is Austin Michael Frey, a Pequea Valley High School graduate. Active in many music-related extracurricular activities in high school, Austin intends to major in animal behavior at Millersville University.

Penn State University student Madison Heider has plans to earn her degree in rehabilitation and human services and then pursue a doctorate in occupational therapy. Madison is quite active at Penn State, including serving as president of Penn State Harrisburg Benefitting THON and being a Lion Ambassador, a peer mentor and a counselor at Aaron's Acres. All of these activities have shaped her career path to work with individuals with disabilities. Madison received the R.D. and Rhoda Buckwalter Legacy Loan.

Madison Heider

Kacie Herr was awarded the Allen Family Foundation Legacy Loan as she pursues studies in biochemistry and molecular biology at Gettysburg College; she loves science and helping people and the environment. Serving as captain of the soccer team for two of her four years as a player, Kacie also was the Spanish Club president and Student Council secretary at Manheim Central High School. Her involvement did not end there, as she was also a member of six Honor Societies, rounding out her busy life with Science Club, Olympiad and Interact Club.

With plans to study English with a writing concentration at Messiah College, Rachel Hungerford is the recipient of the Elwood Bookman Estate Legacy Loan. A 2018 graduate of Garden Spot High School, Rachel was president of the Quiz Bowl team her senior year and was active in their band, choral and performing arts programs.

Rachel Hungerford

Grace Dalavai

An active member of 11 clubs at Ephrata High School, including Student Council vice president, yearbook assistant editor, and stage manager of stage crew, Grace Dalavai also volunteers at her church as a worship team singer and media team member. Grace still suffers from health concerns from a nearly fatal car accident her sophomore year, but she feels blessed to be here and trusts God's plan for her future. Grace intends to major in business management at Grove City College and is the recipient of the Barbara K. Mank Legacy Loan.

Thomas Denlinger hopes his study of mechanical engineering at Messiah College will land him an engineering job in the agricultural equipment field. This Cocalico High School graduate, the youngest of four boys in his family, played on the soccer and volleyball teams and was a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Thomas has been awarded the Jim Hagelgans and Gale Zorian Legacy Loan.

Thomas Denlinger

She is also active in the youth group at Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Alexis Jackson

Alexis J. Jackson hopes to pursue a career that will ensure the continued health of our environment, either working for a conservation district or as an environmental scientist.

To that end, she will major in biology at Delaware Valley University. At Solanco High School, Alexis was a National Honor Society member, a Future Farmers of America member, a 4H Rough Riders Horse and Pony Club Member and officer and also ran varsity track for two years. The Frances Sarkisian Trust Legacy Loan was awarded to Alexis.

Donegal High School graduate Nicholas Ketner ultimately plans to become a nurse anesthetist and is studying nursing at Bloomsburg University. After graduating with his nursing degree, Nicholas will serve as an army nurse for eight years for his ROTC service commitment. In high school, this National Honor Society member was a team captain in football and was also active in Student Council. Nicholas received the Dr. and Mrs. Emmett Cooper Legacy Loan.

Nicholas Ketner

Participation in scouting and on the Hempfield High School tennis team gave Joshua Li a sense of belonging and goals for which to strive. At Penn State University he plans to major in computer engineering, hoping to find a career in the computer hardware/software industry. The recipient of the Dr. Lawrence A. Ezard Memorial Legacy Loan, Joshua wants his work in the computer industry to make the world more connected and to make people's lives more convenient.

Joshua Li

The recipient of the Irel Buckwalter Legacy Loan, Hempfield High School graduate Delaney Loucks will study business administration at York College of Pennsylvania, hoping to eventually obtain a master's degree and start her own business. Delaney's high school activities included being a member of the National Business Honor Society, treasurer and member of the Future Business Leaders of America Club, and a four-year participant on the track and field team.

Delaney Loucks

Eliza Mull

The Binns Legacy Loan was presented to Eliza Mull, an Ephrata High School graduate who is attending Penn State University, accepted to the Schreyer's Honors College. In high school, Eliza was quite active, holding leadership positions in the German and Spanish National Honor Societies, participating in theater on and off the stage, co-editing the features section of the newspaper and co-captaining the girls' varsity tennis team for two years. She took a gap year after graduation to study abroad as an exchange student in Ecuador and will now study international politics, German, and Spanish at Penn State, ultimately working in diplomacy to improve relationships between the U.S. and foreign nations.

Connor Ranck, a Cornell University student majoring in international agriculture, plans to use his degree to work on a farm in Lancaster and to assist other agricultural communities around the world. While a student at Lampeter-Strasburg High School, Connor was president of the Garden Spot Future Farmers of America chapter and was involved in football, band and Model U.N. Connor has received the William Klein Jr. Legacy Loan.

Connor Ranck

Braden Redcay

The E. Ann Klein Charitable Trust Legacy Loan is awarded to Braden Redcay, a Solanco High School graduate who plans to study mechanical engineering technology at Thaddeus Stevens College of Technology. He played varsity basketball at Solanco and plays guitar on his church's worship team.

Brenda Regalado plans to study nursing at the Pennsylvania College of Health Sciences, becoming a travel nurse after earning her Doctor of Nursing Practice degree at the University of Pittsburgh. A graduate of Manheim Township High School, Brenda is an active volunteer in the community and has been awarded the Gray Player Memorial Legacy Loan.

Brenda Regalado

Awarded the Edith Smith Truxal Legacy Loan, Brooke M. Sauder is a Donegal High School graduate who intends to major in marine biology/animal behavior at Millersville University. Her goal is to work in either a marine environmental setting or in a rehabilitation center with animals. Soccer has occupied much of her time since the age of seven both at the school level and the club soccer level for Donegal Youth, Rheems and PA Classics.

Brooke M. Sauder

Morgan Smoker

Morgan Smoker wants to become an elementary or middle school teacher or art therapist after studying art education at Millersville University. Her numerous school activities at Penn Manor High School included soccer, tennis, National Honor Society, Future Business Leaders of America, yearbook, Varsity Club, Envirothon, and the prom committee. Morgan has been awarded the Dale and Sadie High Legacy Loan.

Camryn Stover has been awarded the Pryor E. and Arlene R. Neuber Legacy Loan to help pursue her studies at Millersville University. This 2017 Hempfield High School graduate played soccer for Penn Legacy throughout high school.

Camryn Stover

Alex Weaver

Culinary arts and food service management is the course of study for 2016 Hempfield High School graduate Alex Weaver at Johnson and Wales University. In high school he was involved in his school's video production club. Alex wants to eventually manage an American fine dining restaurant; he has received the Estate of Paul and Genevieve Diller Legacy Loan.
